Ryan Raupe is an estate and business planning attorney. Ryan's practice focuses on representing individuals, families, and business owners with estate planning and business succession planning to ensure proper and efficient estate administration.

Ryan also assists business owners from early formation stages, ongoing maintenance, and succession planning to ensure businesses continue to thrive after the exit or demise of one or more business owners.

Ryan earned his bachelor's degree in Finance and was involved in various organizations on and off of campus. Upon completing his undergraduate degree, Ryan attended law school, where he earned his Juris Doctorate Degree.

Ryan is currently a member of the Bar Association's Young Lawyer Division and its Estate Planning, Probate and Trust Section.

In his free time, Ryan enjoys traveling, golfing, spending time with family and friends, and of course, attending sporting events.
